Norcom High Choir Director Selected 'Outstanding -- 75'

PORTSMOUTH — Melvin N. Lewis, director of the I.C. Norcom High School Concert Choir, has been notified by Jones Bogle, director of the "Outstanding Secondary Educators of America," that he has been selected as an outstanding educator for 1975. Only a small number of secondary educators from schools across the United States are chosen for this award each year.

The outstanding Americans program "is designed to honor the achievements and abilities of the nation's finest citizens," Bogle stated. To qualify, nominees must meet a set criteria by significantly contributing to their communities and professions, and must demonstrate their outstanding abilities through various civic activities.

MELVIN LEWIS is a Richmond native, having graduated from Armstrong High School as senior class president. He received a scholarship to study music at Indiana University; is a graduate of Virginia State College with advanced studies at Northwestern University. He taught in North Carolina and Virginia schools before joining the Norcom High School faculty in 1954.

The Norcom choral director has been an intermediate theory teacher at the Virginia Music Camp at Massanetta Springs, is a past president of the Music Conference, Virginia Teachers Association, has been on the board of the Virginia Music Educators Association, and is a member of the Board of Directors of the National Bellamy Award.

THROUGH THE years he has built reputable singing groups which have been acclaimed nationally. Since 1968 the Norcom Concert Choir has participated in the annual Bellamy Award Presentations and given special concerts at Bellamy Award Schools in the states of Minnesota, South Dakota, Vermont, New Mexico and Alabama.

THE CONCERT CHOIR will leave for Huntsville, Alabama, Friday when it will participate in the 34th annual Bellamy Award ceremonies the week of October 5. Tuesday night the group will present a special concert in the New Von Braun Civic Center.

Lewis will conduct his group, joined by students from the five Huntsville Senior High Schools, the University of Alabama at Huntsville and A.&M. University. He will also conduct the Huntsville Youth Symphony Orchestra. Dwight Steele of Tidewater Community College is guest pianist.

ON FRIDAY, Oct. 10, the Norcom Concert Choir will sing at the Bellamy Award Presentation in the Von Braun auditorium.

Others attending from Portsmouth are Lindell Wallace, assistant principal at Norcom High School, Dr. John Jackson, Mrs. Frances Johnson, Mrs. Louise Brown, and Dr. Margarette S. Miller, executive director of the national school program.

ROGER GOODE, Norcom senior who has been a member of the choir at the Vermont and New Mexico presentations, will represent his school, Portsmouth and the State of Virginia with students from 16 other Bellamy Award states. The Commonwealth of Virginia received the second annual Bellamy Award in 1943 and Norcom is serving as the Acting Virginia School.

Goode is a member of the National Honor Society and is known to Portsmouth audiences for leading roles in the stage presentations of "Purlie," "The Mouse that Roared" and "Dracula."

What Has Integration Done To Norcum High?

By BERNICE PERRY
PORTSMOUTH — I.C. Norcom, the predominately black high school in Portsmouth that was threatened with extinction during the late sixties, has begun to blossom again.

During the period of desegregation, the city decided to transform one of the three high schools into a vocational-technical school. Norcom, the only high school in the black community, was chosen.

Now it is not all-black and not a regular high school; it is a vocational-technical school.

Norcom has been a technical school for four years. Since then, enrollment has climbed from 475 to students to over 800.

"BEFORE THE school was changed to technical-vocational the students thought that it would be degrading to have the school change its format. The students boycotted the school because they were not sure of what was going to happen to it," A.T. Edwards, principal of the school, said.

"During that time the students thought that a vocational school would be for students who were not doing well academically," Edwards explained.

WITH NORCOM, that is not the case. The school offers more opportunities for students who want to learn a skill while they are still in high school.

It is a career comprehensive school, according to Edwards. "This means that when the students leave here they can do either of three things; go to work, go into an apprenticeship or go to any liberal arts college in the country," Edwards stated.

MISS I.C. NORCOM 76-77

The second annual Miss I. C. Norcom Pageant got off to a good start with sixteen young ladies competing for the title.

In a recent interview with the sponsor, Mrs. Harding, she said, "The pageant was patterned after national pageants." She also commented that the purpose of this pageant was to develop poise and self-confidence and that by competing with other contestants, it might launch the girls toward a career that they had never thought about.

With weeks of practice and anxious contestants April 6 finally came. At 8:21 Mrs. Harding came out and turned the event over to Gerry Peacock, who served as Master of Ceremonies.

The long awaited moment came and Jessica Nixon was the second Miss I. C. Norcom. Gay, as she is called around school, was also voted Miss Congeniality. First runner-up was Valerie Parham and second runner-up was Shirley Stith. Michelle Austin turned over her reign as Miss I. C. Norcom and Jessica graciously accepted the crown she had worked so hard for.

NORCOM HOSTS CITY WIDE MEET

On Wednesday May 5, 1976, the I. C. Norcom Student Council Association hosted the city wide meet. Manor, Wilson, Churchland and Cradock High Schools were participants for this event.

Sylvia Watford gave the instructions and explained how the workshops would be set up. After which the delegates from each school were broken up into two groups Parliamentary Procedures and Responsibilities of Leadership.

In workshop B, Responsibilities of Leadership was discussed by Susan Smith of Cradock, Joan Joyner of Wilson, Mr. Davis of Churchland Jr. High and Dr. Cherry of Manor High School. After each lecture questions were raised and answered promptly. Ideas were given by candidates as to how others may solve problems during and after elections.

At the end of the thirty minute session, refreshments were served and the delegates returned to classes. Hopefully each delegate learned enough to go back and make his or her Student Council Association work a little better. by Marion Spellman

Slamming of lockers and confusion in the halls marked the beginning of the 1975-76 school year. Summer vacations, daytime television, and loafing around have all given way now to school sports, homework, and chilly weather. Students are beginning to get organized in school clubs and activities forgetting the summer sun. Teachers are getting back into their set routines about tardiness and homework. However, the Norcom greyhounds feel this will be a year to remember. Debbie Robertson

Mr. Lewis, the director, is a wonderful person. It takes many long hours of hard work to get things together. By this I mean Mr. Lewis wants the best!

Sure they have their ups and downs, but doesn't every organization? Everybody takes the choir members too lightly. When you strive to reach a goal and somebody laughs and puts you down, it hurts! So the next time the choir tries to perform for our school, pay attention, because they're giving their all.

He wants his choir to be number one. He expects each individual to give their all. That's not asking much. Why not be the best. If you've got it, you've got it, and the choir does! by Vickie Milam

15 CONGRESS. July 4
ous Declaration of the thirteen united States of
A CELEBRATION...
TWO HUNDRED YEARS
OF A NATION

A CELEBRATION...
TWO HUNDRED YEARS
OF A NATION

The idea of the original thirteen colonies and their leaders was born out of a passion to be free—to chart their own destiny of building a country out of this thin fabric called Freedom.

The break from England was not to come easily, as this fledgling was viewed as a serious threat to the tentacles of the vast and far-flung British Empire.

Patriots rose from every corner of the struggling country. Help came from other European countries to add to the flame of breaking the grip of England. Farmers, fishermen, cobblers and men from every walk of life took up their arms to defend this new-felt right to be free. As the smoke began to clear, ideas on organizing this diversity of colonies into a coalition of united states began to take shape. The form of a Constitution and Bill of Rights was molded by statesmen who previously were nonexistent.

As the word spread in other parts of the world of this new country, with its vast domain and resources, thousands of immigrants poured in to start a new life. With the added growth of population, new frontiers were needed. This stretching brought new conflicts with foreign powers who previously had laid claim to parts of the interior.

As the gangling country continued to grow, internal disagreement erupted into a battle of economic and philosophical differences. The battle was to leave scars which would heal only after generations had passed. Out of the wounds came a stronger fiber of freedom for the individual man. The country had survived as a unit and now its energies would be put to work in rebuilding the founding fathers' ideals.

PICTURES OF THE WAR

GOOD BYE-GOD SPARE YOU

The need for new frontiers continued as movement spread West. A rapid explosion of technological advances pointed the country into the fore as an industrialized nation.

As one of the leading industrial nations, this strapping, growing giant became embroiled in the first of the World Wars. After its success with other Allied Nations, a never-before-felt boom and prosperity was followed with the shattering bust of the Great Depression.

New leaders were sought to pull the Country out of its fall, while on the horizon new storm clouds were building across the oceans.

A second World War was fought to protect the cause of freedom, as the now grown giant emerged to take its place as the leader of the Free World. This new role has brought with it—many challenges—many successes—some failures . . . and through it all a spirit for all nations to envy—a burning passion that all men may one day be free . . .

SPORTS

VARSITY FOOTBALL TEAM

Michael Ellis

Michael Ellis, better known as "Rock" Ellis is one of our multitalented athletes here at Norcom. Rock, who has played basketball, football, and track, will no longer be playing these sports, (Norcom has been leading in) next year.

Rock who has enjoyed being here at Norcom will be leaving us to continue his education at Norfolk State College. Although he will be at Norfolk State, I'm sure he will continue being athletic in basketball, track and football.

Rock states that the only advice he gives future athletes of Norcom is, "If they want to play sports here at Norcom, they'd better do their work."

Well all I can say to Rock is if you plan to become good at what you do, you'd better do your work!

by Donna Roberts

Ronnie Lamb

Four years ago Ronnie Lamb entered Norcom High School to become a part of the pre-professional program offered here. Since that time he has come a long way.

Ronnie Lamb came to Norcom to learn the fundamentals of physical education and because he wanted to be a Greyhound like his other brother. But since he has been at Norcom, his name is associated with basketball.

During track season last year Ronnie feels that he contributed a lot to the moral of the team. He ran the 880, and only lost twice. Once coming in third, Ronnie did not run track this year because of knee and shoulder injuries he received during basketball season.

by Gerry Peacock

Ronnie Lamb, one out of our many athletes here at Norcom, will be leaving our school and continuing on to a better and higher category of education.

Ronnie Lamb who ran track (until he sprang his arch while playing basketball) and played basketball here at Norcom says he has enjoyed being here and representing our school.

When interviewing Mr. Lamb, I asked him if there was anything he wished to let the future athletes of

I.C. Norcom know, his response was, "Just stick together and you'll be winners."

GREYHOUND BASKET

GREYHOUND BASKETBALL '75-'76

The I.C. Norcom basketball team opened their season December 5, journeying first to Western Branch High School. There the Greyhounds started their reign as number one, defeating the Bruins on their home court 69-60.

From that point on Norcom continued to go undefeated beating Wilson, Indian River, Cradock, and Great Bridge. Soon their perfect record was changed as the Greyhounds ran into some Tigers on their road back to State. They soon recovered and again resumed the throne; only to find more complications at Indian River. Now that the team has suffered from their second loss they got themselves together and went on to defeat Manor, Churchland, Cradock and Western Branch.

The team and its fans at this point still had high hopes of returning to Charlottesville. For, surely, they had put out and produced. They worked hard enough to get into the second night of the tournament after their 92-68 decision over Cradock. Again those same Tigers shattered the dream of every Greyhound by winning 72-66. Now the Hounds had lost first place and their dreams of ever getting to State.

Although the Greyhounds didn't reach their major goal, they did attain some honorable positions. For they placed two players, LaRue Harrington and Michael "Rock" Ellis, on the all-city first string along with freshman Barry Wright on the second string team. Also within their boundaries they held the number one rebounder, Rock Ellis, who also held the number two slot in points scored second only to Stanley Branch of Cradock. The versatile Mike Ellis was also voted the city's most valuable player and to the All-Metro Dream Team, also first string. LaRue Harrington was also a member of the All-Metro Dream Team second string team. Wilson took the cake, but Norcom held the

A LOOK AT OUR J.V.'S

Full of fire, determination and potential, that's how I would describe the J.V. basketball team for the 1975-76 season. The squad was composed of eleven young men who compiled a season record of 6-12.

Although a young team, (only one played last year) the group has proven to possess a wealth of talent.

Coached by Mr. Shelton Wilson, the members of the team are: Sam (The Mad-Bomber-Hawk) Warren, Marvin (Wrench) Jennings, Arch (Big Shorts) Arrington, Donald (Doofus) Scott, (co-captain) Bernard (Again and Again) Smith, Victor (Mo Howard) Bynum, Anthony (Jump-a-lot) Beamon, (co-captain) Jerry (Prettyboy) Johnson, Linwood (Boom-Boom) Bailey, Asnley (Virginia Slim) Baker, and Duncan (Speedy) Howard.

These guys did a marvelous job, and we all hope to see them through a spectacular season next year.

by Terri Dickens

offensive icing that made the cake complete. Those hard-working Greyhounds now hold the top spot in scoring—1,681 points. They placed Barry Wright, LaRue Harrington, and Rock Ellis on the individual scoring—ranging from Wright's 243 to Ellis' 385. Again the Greyhounds held two positions, Ellis and Harrington, on the Top Ten Averages. Norcom rated second place in power rating.

Now that the season is over, we can look back and say our Hounds did some pretty remarkable things.

GIRLS' TRACK TEAM

The Lady Greyhounds' softball team this year was a team of dedication and determination. Each member of the team gave 100% in practice and in our games. No matter where we played or who we played, these ladies displayed good sportsmanship.

Their won and lost record this year shows that we can be No. 1 next year. This is only the second year Norcom has had a softball team. I'm very proud of my girls and I'm looking forward to coaching them next year.

"THANKS GREYHOUNDS"

The I.C. Norcom's basketball team gave their fans an exciting season this '75-'76 year. Although many of the fans felt the team wouldn't be as good as they were last year, because of the fact that a lot of our major players were seniors and had graduated, the fans only came to find out that they were wrong. The '75-'76 basketball team proved that it wasn't a one man team, that it was an all man team.

Although the I.C. Norcom Greyhounds didn't get to return to Charlottesville this year I'm sure the team and the fans felt they did their best.

Good luck next year boys. Thank you for doing your best and "Let's Do It Again" next year.

BASEBALL "76"

The "76" baseball season, found the Norcom Greyhounds with a fast and young club. Winning their scrimmage 9-5 over John F. Kennedy, the Greyhounds showed that they will play a good season.

The team was led by Eric Wilson, who scored four of the runs and reached base every time he went to bat. The Greyhounds quickly went out in front 5-0. The best was yet to come, leading only 5-4 with two outs. The next Kennedy batter put almost a perfect bunt down the 3rd base line. Kevin Ragland, who was pitching, ran to the ball to throw it to Mike Crouch, who made a great scoop to get the ball and end the inning.

Scoring the next four runs, the Greyhounds rode it out for the victory. Even though the game did not count in the standings, it showed the Greyhounds will be in the top part of the Southeastern District race.

TOMORROW BECKONS

Yesterday is gone - never to be re-lived or recaptured
Yesterday remains only in experiences shared, knowledge added, errors corrected, wisdom gained
Yesterday is our history

Today we open the door to our future
Let us pause-review the good times, the bad times we shared at I. C. Norcom. Remember?
Let us evaluate-appreciate efforts our teachers made to equip us to cope with our future. Remember?
Let us pause-recall those who made life and today a reality for us. Remember?

Tomorrow is the rest of our lives.
    It awaits us-together!
Tomorrow-stepping on the threshold of our future
Life moving onward with each tick of the clock.
    How shall we deal with the future?
Shall we cling to the old, the tried, the proven;
    or shall we use our hands, our minds, and our hearts to create change?
Positive change. Good change.
    In our hands resides power.
Power to make the world a better place...
    and we can!

Tomorrow
    together today!
